November 2009

Program C

Dear Parents,

Thanksgiving is coming up and we have begun preparations! We're learning about being thankful for everything God gives us and reading about the first Thanksgiving. We've started to talk about our upcoming Thanksgiving feast and all the goodies we'll make at school.

We continue to develop our number sense as we perform our daily routines and complete tasks. Recently, we have been conveying strong thoughts by using "because" when we talk about our choices.

The preschool has also been bustling with excitement over all the animals Oswald – our current Superkid – is introducing to us. From otters to ostriches, we're exploring the sound of the letter Oo in lots of great ways.
